Dear Parents

These are undoubtedly strange times, as we all adjust to the situation we find ourselves in. Our aim at school is to keep things running as smoothly as possible, and to try and plan for situations that may arise. In the meantime, school life goes on and the children are carrying on as usual.

My thanks go to Miss Ogilvy who organised another successful World Book Day. The potatoes were a particular hit and we are grateful to you for embracing this challenge! The children also looked wonderful in their costumes, and we enjoyed hearing them recite their poetry.

Parent Questionnaire

Thank you for your response to the questionnaire. Please see the outcomes that have been sent out with the newsletter this week.

We very much enjoyed listening to all our musical talent during the music concert on Monday. Thank you to Mr Searle for all his hard work.

Theme Week

Next week the children will bring home Binca, needles and thread so that they can stitch or embroider their representation of Planet Hope. These will be stitched together to form a patchwork quilt. Thank you to those who are able to help. We'll be in touch when stitching is required!

Home project

Children and families are asked to make a model at home, out of recyclable materials, that represents 'Planet Hope'. Do speak to your child's class teacher if you need help with ideas.

Projects will need to be brought into school on the morning of Tuesday 31st March. Unfortunately we can't accommodate them any earlier.

E-safety, and IT

On Friday 24th April, Chris Nash, our IT consultant, will lead a talk for parents on e-safety at 9:10am. He will also show-case some of the work that the children have undertaken in computing this year. E-safety is such an important topic so do attend if you are able to.

The PTA meeting has moved to 23rd April to avoid a clash.

We were very impressed with the children's ability to sit in silence for a period of time as we raised money for the siLENT appeal. It is something they are not used to doing, with no distractions, and it was lovely to see that many of them chose to pray during this time.

We raised £250 for a Million Minutes.
